AMERICA

Samuel Francis Smith

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

PRAYER

AWARD OF THE DEWEY PRIZE

CONFERRING OF DEGREES IN COURSE

(The audience is requested not to applaud during the reading of the names of graduating seniors.)

THE MOUNTAINS

Washington Gladden

1. O, proudly rise the monarchs of our mountain land,
In their kingly forest robes to the sky,
Where Alma Mater dwelleth with her chosen band,
And the peaceful river floweth gently by.

The mountains! the mountains! We greet them with a song,
Whose echoes rebounding their woodland heights along,
Shall mingle with anthems that winds and fountains sing,
Till hill and valley gaily, gaily ring.

2. Beneath their peaceful shadows may old Williams stand,
Till suns and mountains never more shall be,
The glory and the honor of our mountain land,
And the dwelling of the gallant and the free.

BENEDICTION

The audience is requested to rise and remain standing while the procession enters and leaves the amphitheater.

A Word on Academic Costume

The following notes have been prepared in the belief that a brief summary of the significance of the academic costume will be of interest to the parents and friends of the graduating class.

Gown. The bachelor's gown is primarily distinguished by its long, pointed sleeves. The master's gown is similar, except for having oblong sleeves from which the forearm protrudes through a slit near the elbow. The doctor's gown has rounded sleeves and also has velvet panels around the neck and down the front of the gown and three velvet bars on the sleeves.

Members of Phi Beta Kappa are distinguished by a blue and pink ribbon worn on the left breast.

Cap. The cap is similar for all degrees, although certain universities use a gilded tassel instead of a black tassel to distinguish the cap of a doctor. The tassel is worn on the right side of the cap before graduation and on the left side after graduation.

The Dean of the College and the marshals for each division of the academic procession are distinguished by hats of Renaissance design.

Hood. The hood is the most distinctive part of the academic costume. The lining of the hood shows the official colors of the institution which has granted the degree. The border bears arbitrary colors representing degrees in the various fields. The most usual colors are: Arts, Letters, and Humanities, white; Economics, copper; Engineering, salmon; Fine Arts, brown; Laws, purple; Medicine, green; Music, pink; Philosophy, blue; Physical Education, sage green; Science, golden yellow; Theology and Divinity, scarlet. The borders carrying these colors are three inches wide on a master's hood and five inches on a doctor's.
